Republican County Convention.

Notice is hereby given to the Republican voters of Highland county to meet in mass convention at the Court House, Saturday, June 26th, 1886, at 1:30 p. m., for the purpose of selecting nine delegates to the Judicial Convention, which meets at Chillicothe, Wednesday, June 30th, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Circuit Judge.

E. V. OVERMAN, Sec'y.

H. D. WADDELL, Sec'y.

Gladstone is up in Scotland working like a green hand at a log rolling. The case with which he makes hosts of conversions in a hot-bed of the opposition inspires the friends of home rule with fresh hope.

We were only in fun about the Congressional convention—didn't want it very badly anyhow. It was our brethren, Messrs. Fisher, of Wilmington, who hankered for it so earnestly. Chillicothe gets it, although she did not seem to care a compressed darn whether she got it or not.

Democratic newspapers are putting Judge Minshall very tenderly with the expressed hope that he will concur with the two Democrats of the Supreme Court in their desire to oust the last proceedings of the Senate. They are right in saying that Judge Minshall will do precisely what he believes to be right, irrespective of party prejudice. But they are very far wrong in supposing that his judgment in a clear case will be influenced by newspaper taffy or the sophistry of lawyers.

The gang controlling the Cincinnati Enquirer and all the big and little gangsters scattered over the State are valiantly asserting that nothing will be done in the Payne bribery case, but that the Congressional committee will take it all as a joke and forever after hold its peace. May the powers forbid that our lawgivers are so corrupt as to wink at the villany of Ohio's boodle Democracy! If they are so careless of their own and the public good we may rest assured that the voice of the people can not be muzzled when $205,000 have been expended to bribe legislators. Ohio's boodle elements have been sewing to the wind with a phosphate drill, and the time will soon come for them to reap a million-acre field of hungry tornadoes.

After months of anxious waiting the famous Franklin county forgery has been unearthed in all its particulars. The thieves were experienced in their business, and their tracks were skillfully covered up, but not well enough. The forgery was made by a convict now in the penitentiary, the work being done in the crazy department of that institution, whither the tally sheet was conveyed by the managers. The persons who carried the papers to and fro are known and their names will be made public in the near future. It is hoped that all the persons concerned in the important work of that Sunday will find quarters with the convict whose nest penmanship figured in one of the most outrageous schemes that ever disgraced the State.

If a Highland County man is to be nominated by the Republicans for Congress in this district it is important that the delegates from this county be united. It is desirable that there be no unseemly division or contention. To this end we suggest that a primary election be held under the Baber Law. Let the candidates be announced and voted for directly at such primary elections and the man receiving the most votes be permitted to name the delegates to represent the county in the District Convention. This plan will give all candidates a fair chance and give every Republican an opportunity to express his preference. The county will then go into the convention united and enthusiastic with a good chance to have its choice made the nominee of the convention. We commend this suggestion to the consideration of the candidates and the Executive Committee.

Stinking Spring Quarterly Conference.

At the 4th quarterly conference of Stinking Spring for this year, held at Stinking Spring on Saturday, the 10th inst., the following action was taken by a unanimous vote in reference to the Cythiana Methodist society. It is hoped that all who read will respond to help this deserving people.

ACTION OF CONFERENCE.

WHEREAS, It is generally known that the Cythiana society was deprived of a place of worship by the burning of the church building some four years ago, and has since been worshipping wherever it could find a place; and the above named society has faithfully performed its part in supporting the preaching of the Gospel and in defraying the current expenses of the circuit, never for once failing to pay the amount assessed.

Resolved, That the quarterly conference of Stinking Spring circuit, that we heartily commend the action of the Cythiana society in their effort to replace their house of worship, and promise them our sympathy, our prayers, and financial aid, trusting that success may crown their efforts, and that we may all be blessed in the world above.

OBITUARY.

HANNAH SHOEMAKER BROWN.

Was born at Salem, New Jersey, December 11th, 1826, and died at her home in Washington, Kas., June 16th, 1886. A short time after her birth, her parents moved to this place, where her mother died leaving her, the oldest child, a girl of thirteen, as a guardian over her young brothers and sisters. She early resolved to obtain an education, and by indefatigable energy accomplished her purpose, graduating from the Highland Institute in 1851. July 10th, 1856, she was married to Mr. A. Brown, of this place. The first of her class in printed books. Had we space we would gladly publish the tender eulogy of Miss E. L. Grand-Girard, the resolutions of respect by the W. C. T. U. of Washington, Kas., and a beautiful memoir of her life in the Washington Repository.

TRIBUTE OF THE CLASS OF '61.

We desire to express the sorrow that we share with many others in the removal by death of our friend and classmate, Hannah Shoemaker Brown. It seems to human eyes a strange Providence that has called away so one so beloved and needed in her own family, so well fitted to be a helper in every good work, so willing to do her part in the scenes of life, to take up its burden and to bear its crosses for Christ's sake. But, "God knoweth best." Each season, as it hurries by to join the past, bears away something which no future month, however bright and joyous it may be, can restore; and every passing month adds one more name to the long list of friends gone before. With sorrowing hearts we place upon our record the name of our sister, Hannah Shoemaker Brown, of the graduating class of 1861, of Highland Institute, who passed from the scenes of earth to the ascending journey of life on Thursday morning, June 17th, 1886.

MARY WOODROW JOYNSON.

CONCEALED PRICE PUGLEY, LAVINIA HIBBEN DILL.

Sarah Bond Brown.

daughter of Benjamin and Lydia Bond, was born in Union county, Ind., December 16th, 1836. She removed with her parents to Richmond, Wayne county, while quite young, and resided there until her marriage with Edgar Brown, September 11th, 1861. As a loving wife and true Christian mother, she was ever found faithful. She was the mother of six children, four of whom survive her. She joined the army of the redeemed, May 31st, 1866, being forty-nine years, four months and fifteen days old.

NEW BOSTON.

June 21st, 1886.

The smiling countenance of M. A. Garrett was seen on our streets last week.

Schools have closed and you can easily count a score of pedagogues waiting patiently for some one to turn up.

On the sick list—Theo. Fenry, Mrs. Samuel Wolfe and Wm. Lucas. All have been sick for some time with no change for the better.

W. D. Moore, one of the leading ministers of the Baptist Church, will preach at the Beech Woods Chapel, two miles south of this place, on Sunday, June 27th, at 11 a. m.

Miss Anna, daughter of John Smith, met with a slight accident one day last week.

Wm. Hartman, a former resident of this place, is now in the city of New York.

R. P. Grove and wife returned from Columbus, with their afflicted daughter, who has been under treatment for the past six months and we are glad to say she is much improved.

It seems to us that Sunday should not be observed as a day for holding ice cream socials, and other such things, but as a day for the people to rest and reflect.

Last week the waters of Rocky Fork were quite warm, and a man who owned a seine, said, "for many years I have swined in this creek and have escaped the law and if you find a few of his neighbors will go with me, we will try and land some of the finny tribe."

They said with one voice: "we will go" and the way they took to the brush, when seen at the work is enough to show that they knew they were breaking the law.

DODSONVILLE.

June 21st, 1886.

Miss Lola Parker, of Lynchburg, is visiting friends here.

Hamilton N. Shaffer visited friends in Princeton on Saturday.

Rev. W. A. Roush and family, of Athens county, are visiting here.

Mr. Garret Marshall and sister, Lulu, visited friends in Marion, Marion county, Saturday and Sunday.

Rev. Chas. Luck has just returned from a lecturing tour, which he reports as being a complete success.

Charles is a bright young man and should have the patronage of all good people.

The band of hoodlums which parades our streets every evening, yelling and beating in case of lawlessness, is a disgrace to the town.

We think some measure should be taken to stop it.

Samuel Workman is again in trouble. James Armstrong, in Marion, has made an arrest.

Before Justice Palmer, of Buford, against Workman alleging that he (Workman) had forged complainant's name to a receipt for having paid costs in a certain lawsuit.

A warrant was issued and Constable Fife was sent for the accused. Workman saw him coming, however, and fled to his home.

All attempts to catch him were vain until on Wednesday night a company of officers watched the house and finally succeeded in crowding the accused out.

He was taken to Buford on Thursday and bound over in the sum of $500. Failing to give bond he was taken to jail where, according to last reports, he may now be found.

Milton Higgins, a leading farmer in the south end of Clay township, reports a large army of grasshoppers at work on his farm. They have done a vast amount of injury to his growing corn and meadows. This is the second year they have been on his premises, and if they increase in the same ratio they have in the past, it will be a serious loss.

Children's Day was appropriately observed at both churches last Sunday. In the morning the children of the Presbyterian church, and in the afternoon the children of the Methodist church, were present in large numbers. The exercises consisted of responsive reading and singing by the school, followed by a very appropriate sermon by Rev. G. R. Beesler.

The church of the Holy Trinity, at Leesburg, Ohio, is now in the hands of the Rev. J. H. Davis, who is here on a visit.

What is more disagreeable to a lady than to know that her hair is becoming thin and colorless? It is full of dandruff? Yet such was the case with mine until I used Parker's Hair Balsam. My hair is now black and perfectly clean and glossy.—Mrs. E. Brown, Chillicothe, June 1st, 1886.
